

ENOCH of NJ Legislative Alert!

Date: September 30, 2008

From: Mark August, Legislative Liaison, legislative_liaison@enochnj.org

Re: New Jersey Assembly Bill 3123

A bill was introduced into the N.J. Assembly on September 22, which would severely impact the freedom to homeschool without governmental interference. ENOCH of New Jersey is opposed to this bill and will be working in the coming days with other State level organizations as well as HSLDA to formulate an action plan for our opposition.

This alert is being made to inform you of the threat this bill represents, so that you can become informed and make sure channels of communication are open for any call to action in the next days and weeks.

Here are two links to the proposed legislation from N.J.'s legislative website:

HTML: http://www.njleg.state.nj.us/2008/Bills/A3500/3123_I1.HTM

Action Items for you at this time:

Please take the time to read the bill. Please take some time to pray for the N.J. Homeschool community, the State leaders who will be discussing plans of action, and for our legislators.
